

Team Up and Save...

Our Vision

Tennessee Association of Middle Schools and National Middle School Association (NMSA) are dedicated to improving the educational experiences of young adolescents by providing vision, knowledge, and resources to all who serve them in order to develop healthy, productive, and ethical citizens.

Why join?

Tennessee Association of Middle Schools and National Middle School Association are teaming up to bring you the best middle level resources and services. This is your chance to increase your professional development opportunities. Also, you will receive the most up-to-date middle level materials along with substantial discounts on workshops, publications, and conferences.

Dual membership offers teachers, administrators, college professors, parents, and community members an opportunity to become part of the state and national middle level movement. Membership not only offers you the best middle level resources, it also allows you to become an important voice in middle level education.

Now is the time to take advantage of this unique collaboration!
